

Episode 016

The Couple in Florida

Carlos lives in Miami FL. He has lived there for twelve years.

He lives in a condo close to the ocean.

He doesn't live with his family.

He lives by himself.

Carlos is a project manager.

He works for an American technology company.

He is graduated in business administration.

He is single. He has been single for twelve years.

He has a girlfriend. Her name is Jessica.

Actually, Carlos and Jessica live together.

They are planning to visit Brazil during the winter. They have been planning this visit for twelve years.

They love Brazil. They have a great connection with the Brazilian culture and people.

Jessica is a bank manager.

She works downtown Miami at Bank of America.

They have only one car. They share their car.

They are thinking about buying a second car.

What do you think? A second car or UBER rides?

Typical Adverbs of Time	Example	Portuguese
for (period of time)	for 1 year; for 6 months	há 1 ano; há 6 meses; há 10 minutos
since (point in time)	since 2004; since last Monday; since last year	desde o ano passado; desde segunda passada; desde 1999

Answer the questions:

Florida

Where has Carlos lived for the past 12 years?

Where has he lived in Miami for 12 years?

Has he lived with his family all these years?

What has Carlos done for the past 12 years?

Where has he worked all these years?

How long has he been graduated?

How long has he had a girlfriend?

Have Carlos and Jessica been together all these years?

What have they been planning for 12 years?

What has Jessica done for the past twelve years?

How long have they been sharing the same car?